"Mr. Lewis was 72 years old, and leaves a widow and one daughter, Miss Virginia

Mr. Lewis was the wealthiest resident of Jersey County and was known as "The Land King of Nebraska." He was one of the largest holders of farm lands in that State. King of Nebraska." He was one of the largest holders of farm lands in that State. His holdings were principally in Pawnee, Gage, Johnson, Lancaster and Otoe counties, Mr. Lewis founded the cities of Lewiston in Pawnee County, and Virginia in Gage County, naming the latter in honor of his daughter. Mr. Lewis's operations in Nebraska realty commenced in the latter part of the sixties, when in company with Congressman Robert M. Knapp, he began to acquire his extensive holdings. At a meeting of the Nebraska Legislature, held at Omaha, in 1867, Mr. Lewis was an interesting spectator, and before the capital of the State was changed he predicted its location in the salt basin almost on the spot where Lincoln now stands. He, accordingly, purchased property in the vicinity of what is now heatrice, making several hundred thousand dollars as the result. Mr. Lewis was a native of Sussex County, New Jersey.

The functal will take place on Monday afternoon from the Lewis mansion, on Bouth Main street. The Reverend J. G. Klehe, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate, assisted by the Reverend Doctor J. W. Stark of Bloomfield, He, a former pastor at Jerseyville.

WMAT CAUSES DEAFNESS.

The Principal Cause Is Curable but Generally Overlooked. Many things may cause deafness, and very often it is difficult to trace a cause. Some people inherit deafness. Acute diseases like scarlet fever sometimes cause deafness.

cases of poor hearing were caused by calarrh.

The catarrhal secretion in the nose and throat finds its way into the Eustachian tube, and by clogging it up very soon affects the hearing, and the hardening of the secretion makes the loss of hearing permanent, unless the catarrh which caused the trouble is cured.

Those who are hard of hearing may think the a little far-fetched, but any one at all observant must have noticed how a hard cold in the head will affect the hearing and that catarrh if long neglected will certainly impair the sense of hearing and ultimately cause deafness.

If the nose and throat are kept clear and free from the unhealthy secretions of catarrh the hearing will at once greatly improve, and any one suffering from deafness and catarrh can satisfy themselves on this point by using a fifty-cent box of Stuart's catarrh Tablets, a new catarrh cure, which in the past year has won the approval of thousands of catarrh sufferers, as well as physicians, because it is in convenient to use, contains no cocaine or opiate and is as safe and pleasant for children for their elders.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a wholesome

They cost but fifty cents for full-sized package, and any catarrh sufferer who has wasted time and money on sprays, salves and powders will appreciate to the full the merit of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

CHARGED WITH AUDACIOUS FRAUD.

Alleged Brokers Accused of Swindling by Get-Rich-Quick Schemes.

SAID TO HAVE MADE $300,000.

Detectives Charge Them With Dealing in Turkeys on Large Scale and Forgetting to Settle.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Nov. 30 .- Frank Dillon and John F. Barrett, two of the cleverest get-rich-quick operators that have ever worked a gullible public, were caught in the police et to-day, charged with wholesale swindling. The captures were made by Detective Sergeacts McConville and Savage of the headquarters staff. Both prisoners are accused of working the most audacious swindle that has yet come to light.

Beside the alleged operations of these men, ordinary get-rich-quick games were child's play.

Some of the firm names used by the swindiers in conducting their operations were: Brownell & Co., No. 61 New street; Aug. Zimmerman & Co., No. 21 Park Row; Roy J. Smith & Co., No. 55 Broadway; I. W. Pollard & Co., No. 52 Wall street; Potter, Fairchild & Co., No. 38 Park Row; Solomon Rothschild, No. 71 Broadway; Applegate, Lohr & Co., No. 23 Broadway; The F. W. Carlisle Company, Broad Exchange build-ing, and E. L. Bennett, Detective and Collection Agency, No. 181 Broadway. Captain Titus of the Detective Bureau gave out a statement alleging that the prisoners were members of a gang of four nen who have operated in this city for nearly two years under the guise of brokers, during which time they have secured at least $700,000.

Operations Described by Police. Captain Titus, in his statement, said that he had been looking for some time for a gang of swindlers that had been operating in this city for nearly two years. He said, further: "These men opened offices at $1 Nev street, representing themselves as dealers in stocks, bonds, etc. They sent out the usual seductive circular to people all over the United States and Canada, remained in their offices for about six weeks, when they suddenly left, not before they had instructed the post office authorities, how ever to forward all their mail to a certain post office box. This was early in 1900. They remained under cover for about two months, when they next opened offices on Park Row, under another rame, posing as dealers in stocks and bonds. They remained in that office for about two months, pursuing exactly the same tactics as they did at $1 New street, when they suddenly left for parts unknown.

"They next organized a concern at No. 55 Broadway, posing as dealers in stocks, bonds, etc., and sent out the usual circu-lars. They left this address and moved to No. 62 Wall street, where they started in anew under another name. This firm also disappeared after being in operation about four weeks.

Opened a Detective Agency. "They next started up, at No. 181 Broadway, an alleged detective agency and collection bureau, sent out circulars to all the creditors of the defunct concerns; said that they had unusual facilities for collecting claims, and if the receivers of the circulars would send their claims to them, together with all proofs, papers, receipts, etc., they were in a position to guarantee almost dollar for dollar settlement. In this manner they secured from most of the complainants all of the proofs against the concerns mentioned, which they destroyed.

"Complaints were coming into the Detective Bureau from different parts of the United States, and our men were having a hard time to keep track of the gang. Detectives McConville and Savage were detailed to look up the operators of the different firms, and the officers finally succeeded in ascertaining who they were. Meanwhile, however, they had opened offices in the Potter building, leading intending investors to believe that they were con-nected with the owner of the building, Mr. Frederick Potter of 71 Broadway."

One of the latest enterprises of this gang, the detectives said in court to-day, was a firm of commission merchants on Washing-ton street. This firm deal is some washington street. This firm dealt in turkeys for a while before Tranksztving, but falled to pay its bills. The detectives said that an investigation of the affairs of the turkey dealers led to the arrest of Dillon and Barrett lear siets.

Civil Governor Taft Writes About Oriental Display at the World's Fair.

QUESTION OF APPROPRIATION.

Texas Expects to Raise $500,000-Gov. Sayers Will Appoint Thirty Commissioners - Lady Managers to Meet.

Judge William H. Taft, Civil Governor of the Philippines, in a letter to Charles Huttig of the Louisiana Purchase Committee on States and Territories, says that he has formally laid before the Philippine Commission at Manila the matter of providing an exhibit from the islands for the World's Fair, and that arrangements will probably be made for a big display of Oriental prod-

It rests with the commission whether or not an appropriation will be made, but the recommendation of the Governor in this di-rection is understood to go a long way, and that the money will be provided seems not to be doubted. Judge Taft speaks encouragingly of the Exposition and declares that whatever the islands do in making an ex-hibit will be along elaborate lines. President Francis has received a letter from L. R. Wilfley, formerly of St. Louis, out now connected with the Department of Justice at Manila, in which he says: "Governor left directions to assure you that you will have the active and hearty co-operation of the United States Philippine commission in the preparation of the Philppine exhibit for the Fair." A courteous letter from the Governor of to consider the matter of the representa tion of Jamaica at the Exposition in 1903, Jamaica made a very creditable exhibit at the Columbian Exposition, having ex-pended, outside of private exhibits, some Texas May Spend $250,000.

Half a million dollars will be spent by Texas in providing an exhibit from that State for the World's Fair if the plans that are now being considered are carried out Governor Sayers says that the people all over the State are taking an interest in the Exposition and are making inquiries about it from him. He will appoint thirty Commissioners to canvass the State for subscriptions, and it is expected that in this way $259,000 will be raised without difficulty. The balance, or as much more, will be provided by the railroads of the State, it is promised.

Advice of the ladies has been sought by the World's Fair managers in the building of the Fair, and a meeting has been arranged between the Board of Lady Managers and the National Commission, so take place at the Manhattan Hotel in New York city on December 5, when notes will be compared regarding future plans.

The supervising architect of the Treasury says that work on the Government building at the World's Fair will be pushed as rapidly as possible, in order to have the structure ready for use in time. Water-color sketches of the plans have been approved and signed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

John Hanley, vice president of Plasterers' Union, No. 2. St. Louis, offers a suggestion to the World's Fair management, that a special day be set aside for the selection of inspectors for the different departments, so that men best fitted for the various kinds of work will be chosen.

PERMIT FOR THE AERIAL GLOBE Friede Company Accepts All Conditions Imposed by the City.

The Board of Directors of the Friede Blanke Aerial Globe Company, at a meeting yesterday afternoon, accepted all of the conditions imposed by the city authorities in the matter of granting a permit for the in the matter of granting a permit for the construction of the globe. A special form of contract, spproved by City Counselor Schnurmacher, was signed by President C. F. Blancke, Vice-President Frank A. Ruf and Secretary J. F. Conrad, for the company, and returned to the City Hall for the signatures of Mayo, Wells and Building Commissioner Longfellow.

The city offices having closed at noon, however, the formal granting of the permit was postponed until Monday morning.

The estimated cost of the great steel globe, which is to form one of the principal amusement features at the St. Louis World's Fair, in 1863, is given in the application for the permit as 1,590,000. The cost of the permit alone is $750,50, being $1 for the first $1,990 of cost and 50 cents for each additional $1,990.

the first $1.00 of cort and 50 cents for each additional $1.00. In each of these particulars the Friede globe will establish a new record in the office of the Building Commissioner. The largest permit so far taken out was for the Century building, whose estimated cost was $890.00 or a little more than one-half that of the Friede globe. The estimated cost of the new Bank of Commerce building, at Broadway and Olive street, and the Pontiac building, at Seventh and Market streets, now under construction, is $500,000 in each case.

new under construction, is $500,000 in each case.

The Friede Aerial Globe, which was designed by Samuel M. Friede of St. Louis, will be 700 feet high and accommodate 30,600 people at one time. It will be the largest structure in the world, having a capacity six times that of the Edffel tower and ten times that of the Ferris wheel. Roof gardens, theaters, concert halls, music halls, palm gardens and other amusement features will be located within the structure at various heights from 110 to 700 feet. Being of the finest material and best construction throughout, the Friede globe will be a permanent structure.
